

Want to Create an Effective Addiction Ministry Team?

The Center of Addiction & Faith and Faith Partners are offering Leadership Training for Saturday, November 13th

The opportunity to make a difference in the life of someone struggling with addiction is often no farther away than the person who sits near us in the pew on Sunday morning—someone whose life is silently unraveling and who desperately needs us to reach out with an open heart. The faith community can be one of the principal healers of addiction and mental health issues.

Faith Partners has established a national presence resulting in over 1,000 trained congregational teams in 29 states from 23 different faith traditions. These team members have ministered to thousands of individuals and families by offering the necessary tools and supports to make healthier choices and effectively meet people in their brokenness.

Join us for this hybrid training event (In-person and virtual combination) for congregational leaders to develop and congregational addiction team ministry.
